CHAPTER 778.

AN ACT to repeal section 221 of Article 16 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland of the year 1904, title "Chancery," sub-title "Trustee," and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section 221 of Article 16 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland of the year 1904, title "Chancery," sub-title "Trustee," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted as follows:

221. Every trustee to whom any estate, real, personal or mixed, shall be limited or conveyed for the benefit of creditors, or to be sold for any other purpose, except upon a contingency, shall file with the clerk of the court in which the deed or instrument creating the trusts may be recorded, a bond in such penalty as the clerk may prescribe, being as nearly as can be ascertained double the amount of the whole trust estate, and with sureties to be approved by the clerk, conditioned for the faithful performance of the trusts reposed in such trustee, which bond shall be retained and recorded in the office of said clerk; and no title shall pass to any trustee as aforesaid, until such bond shall be filed and approved as aforesaid, and no sale made by any such trustee without such bond shall be valid or pass any title to such property or estate. If the trust estate consists of real property, or of real and personal property, situated partly in the county or city in which the grantor reside, and partly in one or more other counties, it shall be sufficient that a bond has been accepted and filed in the county of the grantor's residence; if the trust estate consists entirely of real estate in a county or counties other than of the residence of the grantor,
